Proof that you really can have it all, this stunning home offers room for everyone to spread out and relax, along with gorgeous entertaining spaces where you can gather with loved ones.

A dining room with boxed ceiling is set just off the entry, a joyous space to host dinner parties or enjoy everyday family mealtime. Life is sure to revolve around the spacious, light-filled, wood flooring, open-concept family room, kitchen, and breakfast nook. A stone to ceiling fireplace adds extra comfort, plus there is an abundance of oversized windows that frame views over the yard and draw in warm natural light.

Whether you're a passionate cook or love hosting guests, you're sure to appreciate the impressive kitchen with an island, granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, and white cabinets. Perfect for outdoor living is the covered patio, which is a way to relax with loved ones or read a good book.

The master suite boasts an enormous walk-in closet and a master bath with dual vanities, a separate shower, and a garden tub. There are three secondary bedrooms, all with walk-in closets and easy access to a full bath. Completing this impressive home is the utility room, storage spaces and a two-car garage.
